

Section 2. Successful Models of Undergraduate Research

Mark E. Ware, Editor

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire: An Institutional Model for Excellence in Undergraduate Research	54
Christopher T. Lind
Undergraduate Research at the University of Nebraska at Kearney: Building and Sustaining the Culture	59
Kenya S. Taylor
Summer Undergraduate Research Experience: A Model for Student Participation in a Competitive Grants Program at the University of San Diego	62
Kenneth D. Keith, Lisa M. Baird & Michael Ichiyama
A Successful Model of Undergraduate Research: Utah State University	65
Joyce Kinkead
Institutionalizing Undergraduate Research at Murray State University	69
John Mateja
Creating and Sustaining a Culture of Undergraduate Research: Southern Utah University Psychology Department's Report on Success	72
Lynn H. White
Morningside College: A Successful Departmental Model of Undergraduate Research	75
Susan R. Burns
Encouraging Undergraduate Research: Hanover College's Psychology Major	78
John H. Krantz, Stephen D. Young, T. William Altermatt, Ellen R. Altermatt & Michelle H. Mamberg
A Successful Departmental Model: Missouri Southern State University	82
Christie Cathey & Gwendolyn Murdock
University of Mary Washington: A Successful Departmental Model	86
Roy Smith
A Successful Departmental Model: Furman University	90
Charles L. Brewer, Gilles O. Einstein & Beth A. Pontari
A Comprehensive Strategy to Promote Undergraduate Research in Psychology at the University of Central Arkansas	93
William J. Lammers	