STP Presidential Citation Awarded to Dr. Dana Dunn

During the 122nd Annual Convention of the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Teaching of Psychology/Division Two of the American Psychological Association is pleased to present Dr. Dana Dunn of Moravian College with this Presidential Citation in recognition of your contributions.

Dana served as President of STP during 2010, but this was just one element of many his many points of service to STP. Over the years, Dana served as a member and chair of STP Teaching Awards Committee, a participant in STP Mentoring Project, and as a member of the STP Long Range Planning Committee and Communication Task Force. In addition, Dana served STP as Director of Programming at the APS Teaching Institute 2004-2008.

Dana's prolific writing and editing abilities have served him well but also the Society. In addition to being a blog writer for Psychology Today ("Head of the Class") since 2009, he has also served as Editor-in-Chief of Oxford Online Bibliographies since 2010. As STP began its "Best Practices" series of conferences, an edited volume would often emerge from each annual conference. Due to Dana's publishing connections and pro bono contributions, STP was able to publish those volumes ("Best Practices" volumes) and the royalties were directly donated to STP. Tireless work performed by a master writer and editor on behalf of teachers of psychology everywhere. Other beneficiaries of Dana's expertise include departmental faculty members nationwide, as he has been a long-time participant in the STP Departmental Consulting Service as a program reviewer. In 2013 Dana received the Charles L. Brewer Distinguished Teaching of Psychology Award from the American Psychological Foundation.

It is with extreme pleasure and gratitude that I present you with this Presidential Citation on behalf of your STP/Division Two friends and colleagues. Thank you for boundless energy and infinite support for the advancement of the teaching of psychology – we all benefit from your excellent work.
